

RAVI ZACHARIAS DUNEDIN VISIT

FEB 26-MARCH 2, 2017

FEATURING:

Jade Te Uri Karaka

Jade has worked and lived in four different countries primarily as an advocate for youth development and whānau transformation for 19 years and has also travelled around New Zealand speaking in schools, churches, government meetings and various communities about how faith and education has the potential to unlock dreams.

Michael Ramsden

Michael is the International Director for Ravi Zacharias International Ministries (RZIM). Michael was brought up in the Middle East and later moved to England where he worked for the Lord Chancellor's department investing funds. While doing research in Law and Economics at Sheffield University, he taught Moral Philosophy and lectured for the International Seminar for Jurisprudence and Human Rights in Strasbourg.

